

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT

1. Please write approximately one page summarising your understanding of counselling. Your answer should also include something of your Christian understanding and experience and how this relates to counselling.
2. Please write approximately one page outlining how you have become interested in the field the course covers, your experience to date, why you are interested in the course, where you want to go in this field and why you should be accepted into the course.

Please attach these sheets to your application.